specific funding package EXAMPLES

Becoming a Species on the Move Diversity Partner will allow the committee to offer free and discounted registrations and travel scholarships to under-represented minorities in science, including researchers from developing countries, early-career scientists, women and scientists with child-care responsibilities.

Your organization will be recognized as a champion of diversity in the sciences. Funds will go towards subsidizing registration fees and providing travel scholarships. Scholarships will be offered as part of the call for presentations to encourage submissions from researchers who may not otherwise be able to attend an international conference.
